

Spirit into matter

For me, it stems from. The action of many life times.
Even though there be duality. The principle of change, and other. And the constant march of time.
That demands lifespan. And rebirth.

Given the information at hand. We resonate with the sensory input, and store emotion, thought, and choice.
Into all mind, conscious and sub-conscious. That forms our speech, conduct, and action.
Granted our development, and evolution of our intellect. Which gives rise to spirituality, or confinement.

The conviction of mind, instinct, heart, of emotion, and of belief. Only this moment is life. And is, impressed onto the soul.
Our eternal identification, our soul. And our creative entitlement, our spirit. Such is proven knowledge.

Spirit into matter. Matter that cannot be destroyed. That is, encoded into particle. A single particle that is, our soul.
That merely changed its state. Into single, and multi-cell life. Into all visible nature.
Not made by us, or another.

That links us all to each other. A greater spirit that links us all.
Interconnected by a vast ocean, of the universes. All Nature.
And our Maker God. In all, and through all, and with all.
