

The Lovers Dance

What is love,
Other than,
An oath in embrace,
A lover's emotion.

That fills the senses,
A driven chemical change,
Rooted in the mind,
And dual in nature.

Patterns that match stride,
A union in movement,
Consistencies that pace,
Identical design.

That forms a trust,
A commitment to another,
Such conviction of faith,
A favorable partner choice.

In the dance of life,
We share passion,
And our love,
The Sultans of swing.

Note: Originally an Arabic abstract noun.

Sultan meaning: "strength", "authority", "rulership".
